Dear future self...

Dear future Chloe

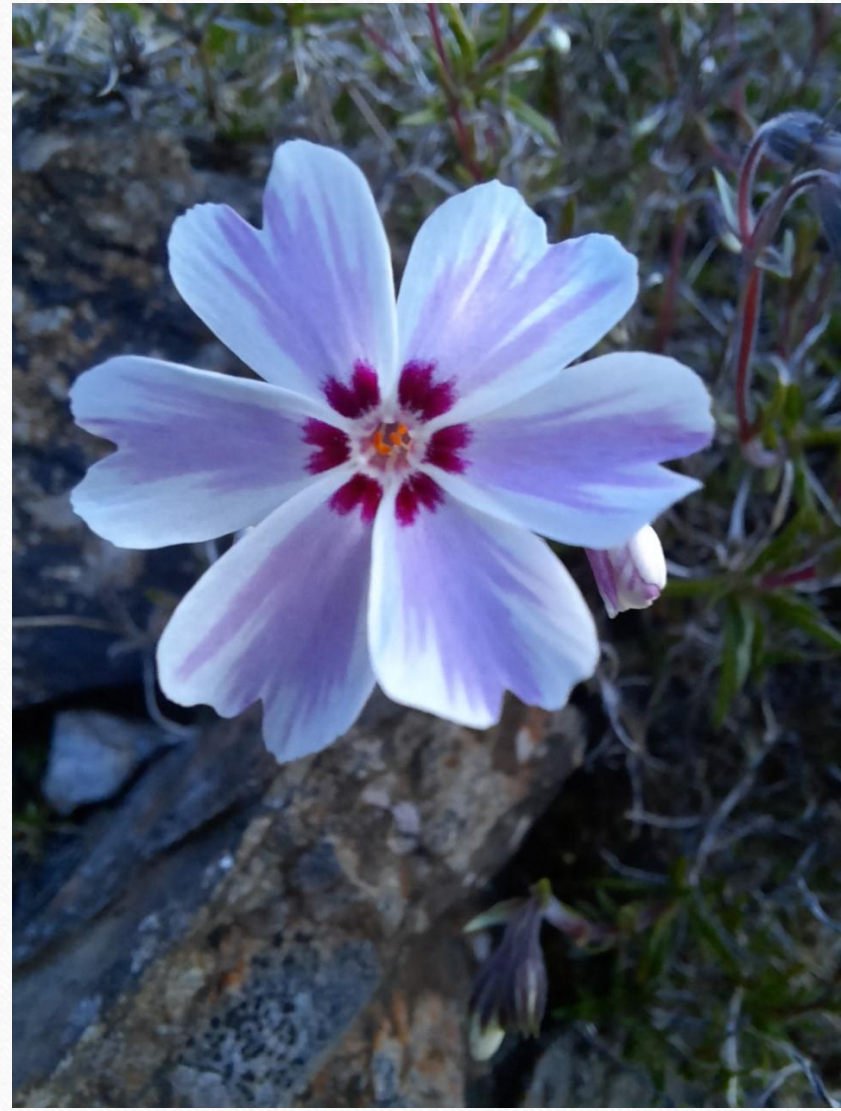

Today I am 10 years old. I miss seeing my friends and school. I can't wait for the lockdown to end so I can go back to watching and playing football.

When I grow up I want to play for Cavan so I'll need to train to reach that level. As my job I would like to be a teacher. I would like to travel around the world to visit family. I like to spend time with my family and play with Monty outside.
P.S. Monty is my dog.

My New Skills

Time Capsule

Have you learned any new skills or improved of any?

Yes, I learned to make guacamole and scones. I also learned new football skills.

Will you use any of these skills after the lockdown is over?

Yes, I will use my new skills when lockdown ends. I will bake scones for my nanny and grandpa. I will make guacamole as a treat. I will use my football skills to get better at football.

Who taught you the new skills?

Mummy taught me how to bake scones. Daddy taught me to make guacamole. And I taught myself how to learn new skills.

How did you learn the skill?

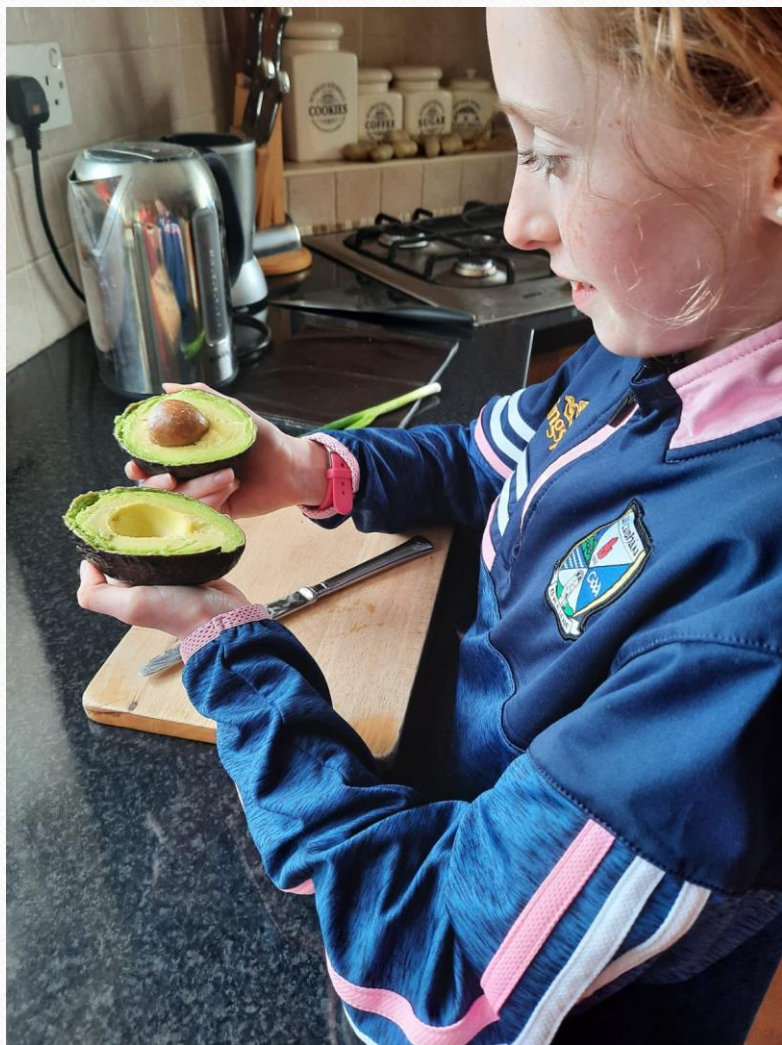

I learned the skill by practising regularly.

How long did it take you to learn?

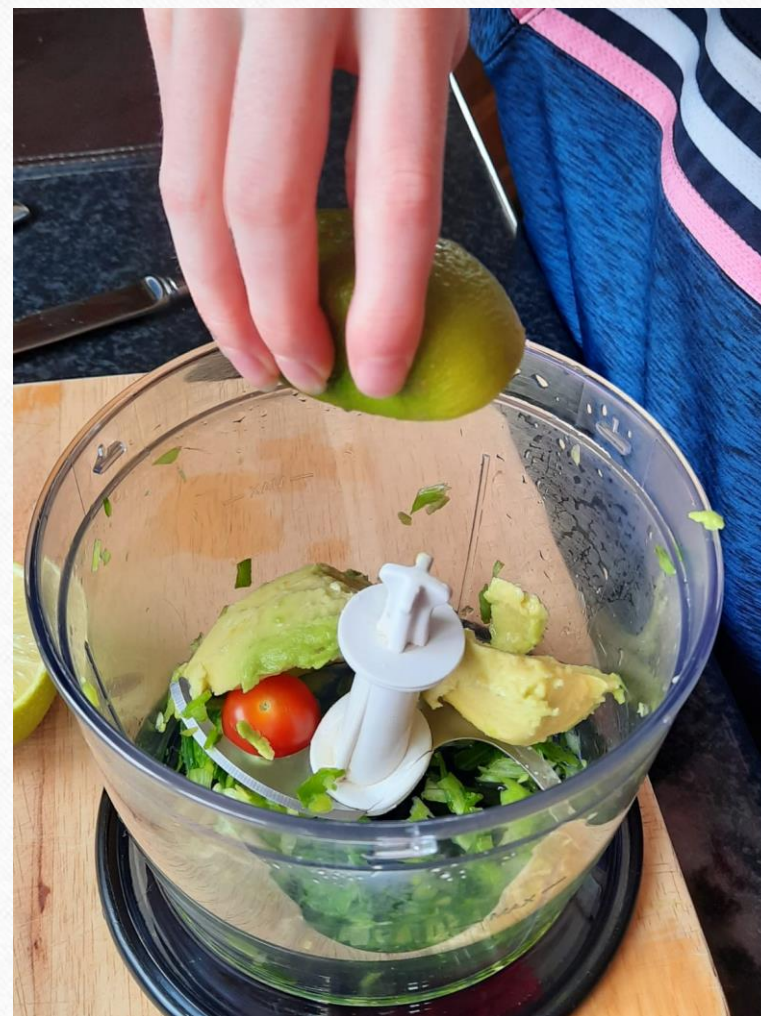

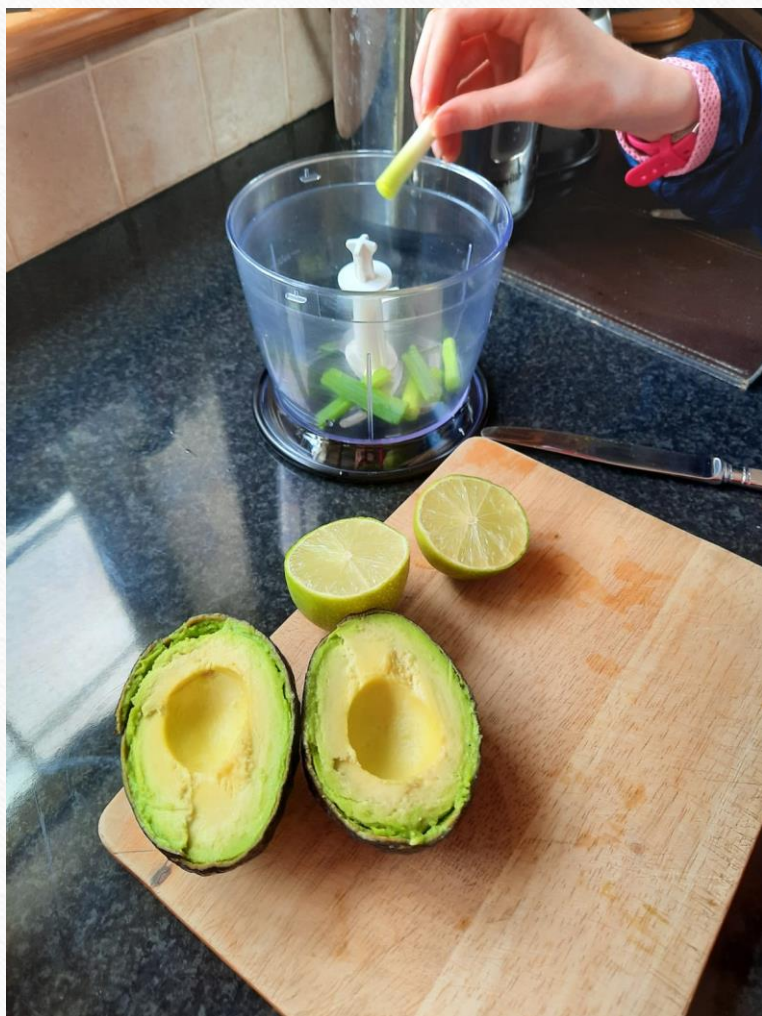

The football skills took a few days.
The guacamole took 1 day.
The scones took 1 day.

If I could pick a new skill to learn what would it be?

It would be canoeing because I practise hitting the ball.
